OBEDIENCE OVER JUMPS

One of the paradoxes of the equine world is that horsemen are continually trying to devise competitive events for horses kept primarily for the non-competitive sport of foxhunting. One group of events centers about racing—over brush and hurdles at the major tracks; over these plus timber at the sanctioned hunt meetings; and over timber only at the point-to-points, both flagged and old-fashioned. A second group of cross country events, purposely omitting the element of speed, consists of hunter trials—singly, in pairs and teams, and as a field; of the cross country phase of the three day event; and of the recently devised hunter pace event. A third group centers about horse shows, with classes for jumpers, conformation and working hunters; and about gymkhanas, featuring handiness events, bending races and so forth.

All these competitions were originally invented with the primary aim of simulating closely the conditions of the hunting field—an aim which practically all of them have failed to achieve. Certainly no events have been more lacking in this respect than hunter classes in horse shows. American show hunters are magnificent animals, but the percentage of them which are regularly ridden to hounds with ease and comfort is very small indeed.

The show hunter is asked to negotiate at an even pace, always at the canter, a level course from which such hazards as weeds, brush, stumps, rocks and holes have been eliminated, and to jump, always in stride, a series of obstacles lacking in variety, usually provided with wings, and which he must not touch, be it ever so lightly. Even to the novice it is obvious that the above conditions are diametrically opposed to those commonly met with while hunting the fox. Furthermore it is often possible to show with success horses which would be quite uncontrollable behind hounds.

What we look for primarily in the field hunter is obedience, a quality which our present show ring class specifications require in relatively small quantities. Actually it is curious that obedience over jumps has not been made more of a feature in working hunter classes. In the hunting field we often ask a horse to jump at a walk and trot, as well as at a canter. If there is an additional obstacle, such as a ditch, in front of the jump, we ask him to stand back or put in an extra stride, depending upon the intervening distance. Often we have to jump at an angle; usually a greater variety of obstacles than those provided on either outside or inside courses; almost invariably without wings. Whether the horse raps the jump is of no great importance as long as he neither hurts himself nor unsettles his rider.

There really seem to be no practical reasons why, in working hunter classes, we should not alter our courses and class 2 specifications along the above lines so as to provide approximately the same tests of obedience and ability which we now can obtain only by riding across country.

'Over - Dressed'

Dear Sir:

Having just read the letter in this week's Chronicle (Oct. 5) entitled "Blue Jeans", I now wish to add a point to the issue. At a Junior Hunter Trial recently I saw six-year-old children turned out in black boots, canary breeches, black coats, and, lastly and most awfully, in HUNT COLORS! Since one should have hunted for sometime and learned the country before one earns colors, I would say that these over-dressed tykes were incorrectly attired! Let's teach our children how to ride a horse, not how to be clotheshorses!

REVIEW OF THE WEEK

Favored Romanita Disqualified in Gardenia Stakes C. V. Whitney's Magic Forest Declared Winner

Charles Lamb
(Raleigh S. Burroughs is on vacation)

When Willie Shoemaker last week became the first jockey in the history of the turf whose mounts earned purses totalling more than $2,000,000 in a year, the feat served further to point up the fact that here is a profession in which a young man, provided he has the necessary physical attributes, can make his mark in the world with more celerity than perhaps any other endeavor.

Dangerous, yes, but rewarding.

Shoemaker and another Willie, Hartack, and Eddie Arcaro are assuredly in the quarter of a million yearly bracket and any rider worth his salt earns well into five figures each year.

A couple of years ago, Norman Cox, a good journeyman rider, earned $15,000 by mid-summer, figured if he was going to work thereafter he would be handing most of his pay to Uncle Sam's tax collectors, so quit for the year.

Walter Blum, a nice boy barely in the shaving stage, recently picked up $25,000 to handle the horses of racing's most generous lady for only three months. The same lady gave Shoemaker $10,000 not too long ago to steer her horses in several big stakes at New York.

It is not uncommon for jockeys in a big stakes to earn $1,000 merely as a retainer for that one race. Of course, if they win, they receive 10 per cent of the purse instead and quite often that is $10,000 or more.

Even a boy of minor-league talents can earn $20,000 if he works hard. A good jockey, with an average number of mounts and average percentage of winners, has no trouble earning $12,000 or so riding exclusively on the minor tracks of Maryland and West Virginia.

On the "halfers", too, it is customary to reward the winning rider with 10 per cent of the purse, so a jockey copping only one race per day can easily reach the $20,000 bracket.

Perhaps the biggest wage earner among the jockeys last week was Headley Woodhouse, who received the usual one-tenth cut of the $93,550 winning purse of C. V. Whitney's Magic Forest, victress in the $136,275 Gardenia Stakes at Garden State through a disqualification.

Favored Romanita was first under the wire in the mile and a sixteenth test, but was moved back to third place in the official finish after the stewards determined she had interfered with two horses.

While making her move on the stretch turn, Romanita crossed in front of Light N Lovely and, after forging to the front, bore out and bumped Magic Forest in the vicinity of the sixteenth pole.

After viewing films of the race, the country's richest for two-year-old fillies, Magic Forest, who had finished a nose behind Romanita, was awarded first money and Light N Lovely, third in the original finish, was placed second.

Magic Forest, who had earned a comparatively piddling $10,848 in her previous outings this year, paid $29.00 straight after being timed in 1.45 2/5.

Jets Charm wound up fourth and was followed by Snow White, Great Pride, Therapy, Bluebilly, Gold Finery, Gossamer, Magic Spell and Royal Float in the order named.

NEW YORK HANDICAP

Herman H. Helbush's Nearque II scored his third win and easily his most important when he defeated the favored Prince Morvi in the seventeenth running of the $28,500 New York Handicap on closing day at Belmont.

Urged by Ismael Valenzuela right down to the wire, Nearque II, second choice in the betting, reported three-quarters of a length in front of the invader from Australia, with E. Eugenia Bankhead's Jabneh third in the field of nine which answered the bugle in Belmont's only stakes offering on the grass.

Valenzuela allowed Nearque to race on his own courage early in the mile and three-eighths event, racing between six and 10 lengths behind the pace-setting Irish Love. But soon after leaving the backstretch, Nearque began to move up gradually while racing on the extreme outside. At the head of the home lane, he got to the front under the sting of Valenzuela's busy whip, easily opened a length and a half advantage in mid-stretch, but was all out to hold Prince Morvi safe.

Prince Morvi rallied from even farther back, was fortunate in securing racing room close to the hedge in making his bid for the $19,450 top share of the purse, but was not quite able to overcome Nearque's advantage gained in early stretch.

Angel Valenzuela, brother of Ismael, was a casualty in the race, being unseated on the first turn when his mount, Rock Cottage, clipped the heels of Prince Morvi. Angel received nothing more than a shaking up.

KEENELAND STAKES

Claiborne Farm polished off the final two stakes of the Keeneland meeting, adding $80,089 to its accounts in the process. After Round Table had gained a driving half-length victory over Missile in the richest Breeders' Futurity at the Kentucky track, with Tranquil third, Doubledogdare clicked by a length and a quarter in the $50,000 added Spinster on closing day.

Outrun the first six furlongs of the mile and an eighth race, Doubledogdare came with a rush through the home lane to easily put away the pace-setting Faithful Song, then held Queen Hopeful, from the barn of Hasty House Farm, safe. S. E. Wilson, Jr.'s Lady Swords was third, another three lengths out of it as Faithful faded to fifth, a neck behind Searching.

Doubledogdare, coupled with her stablemate, Delta, in the wagering, returned a $7.20 mutuel as favorite after being timed in 1.49 1/5 over a fast strip.

Seventh after half a mile, Round Table moved into contention after being straightened in the home lane by Steve Brooks, then overcame a two-length advantage by Missile to gain a half-length triumph. Tranquil was third, Round Table returned a $7.00 straight mutuel as second choice to Missile after completing the little more than seven furlongs of the Beard Course in 1.26 4/5, two-fifths of a second slower than the track record.

JAMAICA

Jamaica opened its fall meeting with the $24,150 Sport Page Handicap, won by Mrs. Ethel D. Jacobs' Joe Jones. Last with a quarter of a mile to go, Conn McCreary skimmed the rail with the veteran gelding to land him three-quarters of a length in front of the pace-wetting Decathlon at the end of six furlongs. History Book was third and Hartsville fourth in the field of 13 starters.

Joe Jones, timed in 1.10 4/5, earned $11.30 for $2 for his backers among the crowd of 16,124 fans.

Two days later, Joe Jones wasn't so fortunate, finishing third in the $15,000 Queens County Handicap as Morris Sims' Blessbull set a Jamaica track record of 1/42 for a mile and a sixteenth.

Blessbull, with Willie Lester in the irons, was close most of the trip, but didn't challenge for the lead until the field of 11 reached the stretch. There, Lester cracked Blessbull once and the five-year-old gelding shot to the front, finishing an easy four lengths ahead of Midafternoon, who was only a head better than Joe Jones.

Blessbull's time toppled the previous mark of 1.42 2/5 hung out by One Hitter more than six years ago.

MAYFLOWER STAKES

Another fast-closer, F. J. Nalley's Melson captured the $29,500 Mayflower Stakes for two-year-olds at Suffolk Downs. After breaking ninth in the field of 11, Melson moved into the lead in the stretch and went on to a three and a half length triumph over Culpeper, with Good Harbour another half length out of it. The winner sped the mile and 70 yards in 1.43 flat.

Mrs. O. Phipps' Ancestor An Easy Winner Of United Hunts' $50,000 Temple Gwathmey

John E. Cooper

The two day race meeting held by the United Hunts at Belmont Park on Tuesday and Wednesday, October 16th and 17th saw more than 34,000 people come through the turnstiles and wager over $3,000,000 on the two day program. A high proportion of the 1,600 some odd membership of the non-profit organization made it a gala occasion, with a party at the Waldorf on Tuesday evening coming as a pleasant interlude between each day's racing.

Highlight of the meeting was the rich Temple Gwathmey with $50,000 added. Four minutes, 42 seconds and 16 fences after the start, Mrs. Ogden Phipps' name was added to the roster of winning owners for the second year in a row when Ancestor scored by 18 lengths. The odds-on favorite Montpelier's Shipboard, with an assignment of 168 lbs., 19 more than the winner, ran disappointingly to finish in the runner-up spot, with Alvin Untermyer's Morpheus and John M. Schiff's Carafar sharing the purse in the order named.

The biggest field ever to go postward faced George Cassidy at the tape, and he quickly sent the dozen runners on their way. Mrs. Vernon Cardy's Evian was first to show the way, quickly joined by Allison Stern's Glencannon, who took the lead going to the second fence. It was at this fence that a series of mishaps began which eliminated five of the twelve starters. Sundowner, in the thick of the running at the time, lost Earl Phelps here, and a fence later Glencannon while still in the lead unloaded Murt Hoey, who unfortunately was hit by a passing horse inflicting neck and shoulder injuries. Meanwhile Dooley Adams on Ancestor had gone to the front, where the Phipps horse has generally run his best races; while saving his mount, he managed to set a fairly fast pace, a little more than daylight in front of his field. In closest pursuit for more than a turn of the course were Evian, Pine Shot and Carafar. Rounding the clubhouse turn for the final tour of the field, Evian and Basil Bee both came a cropper. Ancestor was running easily out in front with Pine Shot and Carafar close behind him. Albert Foot on Shipboard started to move with the topweight, but the horse responded sluggishly and did not appreciably close any ground on the leaders. Going to the second of four fences on the far side, Jimmy Murphy on Carafar moved boldly on Ancestor and got to within a length of him, but Carafar landed poorly, sending Murphy up over his ears, and all but off. Losing ground, he gave way to Pine Shot, but misfortune overtook the Morris Dixon jumper two fences later when he jumped off the quarters of Ancestor and unhorsed Eddie Deveau. Because of these mishaps Ancestor was left with a comfortable lead of four or five lengths as he raced for the far turn. Carafar was closest, followed by Morpheus. The remainder of the field still on their feet - Independence, Shipboard, His Boots and Eastcor - were seemingly out of it. Over the last fence and up to the wire, Ancestor increased his margin under brisk urging by Adams. Carafar was closest to him at the 16th jump, but a poor landing here caused him to fall back, while Shipboard, passed the tiring Morpheus in the stretch run to garner the second place money of $10,000.

The Gwathmey was Ancestor's second score of the season. He previously had taken the Harbor Hill in mid-September, and then had run poorly in the Broad Hollow and Brook Steeplechases. His victory in the Gwathmey was the best race of his career, his fencing and speed leaving nothing to be desired. Most of the remainder of the field had excuses either for lack of class, or poor fencing. While loose horses running through the field bothered some of the other starters, it can hardly be said that this was important enough to have affected the result. The exception to the above was Shipboard, who ran and jumped well, but lacked sufficient speed between his fences. There is no question that his weight assignment had its effect, but in the past he has run much better races with almost as much in the lead pad.

The result of the Gwathmey was a tribute to two of the most outstanding men in the steeplechase world. Earlier in the week, G. H. (Pete) Bostwick had announced that he was retiring from training, although he will continue to race a stable under his own name with Merritt Mergler as trainer. Bostwick has led or been near the top of his profession for many years, and has developed such outstanding chasers as Neji, Oedipus and Cottesmore. Frank "Dooley" Adams, who has led the list of chase riders for almost as long as one cares to remember, will devote himself in the future to training, although he will first taste the official side of racing.

Rose Tree Hunt Race Meeting

Capt. J. L. B. Bentley's Gillian Wins Timber Race, Curly Joe Winner in Brush Event

Chris Wood, Jr.

The sun came out, and so did some 6000' followers of hunt racing, as the Rose Tree Fox Hunting Club staged its 97th annual fall hunt race meeting on the club grounds near Media, Pa., on Saturday, October 20. Highlighting the diversified program, the annual renewal of the Rose Tree Hunter Challenge Cup attracted 7, and just about all of the timber horses remaining in training this fall.

Withstanding a bold stretch drive from A. H. Smith's Grand Chal, Capt. J. L. B. Bentley's home-bred Gillian scored a head decision in the 3 mile test over 21 fences. It was not all beer and skittles for the mare from Orleans, Va., and Lady Luck may have played an important factor, as the favored Dancing Beacon, representing Mrs. George P. Greenhalgh, Jr., was mistakenly taken off the course along with Mrs. C. Paul Denckla's Ned's Flying after leading over the 14th obstacle.

Moving to the fore at the break, Grover Stephens got Gillian over the 1st fence a head to the good of Dancing Beacon, while Grand Chal got over 3rd, a 1/2 length in front of Turner Wiltshire's Friars Fool. After settling over a few fences, Dancing Beacon moved to the fore with Gillian, Friars Fool and Navy Talk following as mentioned. The advantage was held until the 10th obstacle, where Friars Fool showed in front by a nose and tired thereafter. During the uphill run to the 14th, Phillip Fanning brought Ned's Flying up to challenge and over the 14th the pair sailed as a team. Upon landing both Melvin Ferral on Dancing Beacon and Phillip Fanning on Ned's Flying moved to the finish line in a heated drive. Amateur rider Fanning swung back on the course, negotiated the 15th and then circled his mount back to the field where he departed and then continued. Realizing that he was hopelessly out of the hunt, Melvin Ferral pulled up his mount.

With the front-runners out of contention, Grover Stephens moved Gillian to the front and the pair never relinquished their advantage for the balance of the hill-and-dale journey. Although pressed in the stretch by Grand Chal and apprentice rider Joe Aitcheson, Gillian held on to score her 4th victory of the year and gain 3 points for a total of 16 in the timber division of the United Hunts Racing Association's awards. This assured her owner and breeder of the $1,000 bonus for 1956 competition over timber.

The winner negotiated the 3 mile course over 21 fences and firm turf in 6.13. Behind the fast-closing Grand Chal by 15 lengths, the Saxon Woods Stable's Navy Talk finished 3rd. Finishing behind the money horses as named were: Mrs. F. Miller's Kilmarnock, Turner Wiltshire's Friars Fool, and the unlucky Ned's Flying.

Only 4 brush performers accepted the issue in the Foxcatcher Plate, a 2 mile steeplechase handicap. The early pace in the event was alternately shared by Morris H. Dixon's *Palaja and Bellevue Farm's Ares. Unsuccessful over obstacles for the past two years, Randolph Rouse's Curly Joe trailed the field, which also included Mrs. A. J. Smithwick's *Crag. Jumping the 12th and final brush jump in 3rd position behind Ares and Crag, Curly Joe suddenly took on new life under the expert urging of Daniel Delaunay. Passing the leaders in the uphill drive to the finish, the young French-born rider gave Curly Joe an excellent ride to win by 4 lengths. Coming from last over the final obstacle, Ed Deveau pushed *Palaja into 2nd position, 1 length to the good of Ares. The winner covered the 2 mile brush course in 3.40 and gave trainer D. M. "Mike" Smithwick his second winner of the day.

The 1st visit to the winner's circle for the conditioner from Hyde, Md., was furnished by C. Randolph Snowden's Fighting Byrne, winner of the W. Plunket Stewart Memorial Challenge Cup, secondary brush attraction. Permitting Morris H. Dixon's Chillick and Mrs. G. S. McIntosh's Sonabo to lead over the first two obstacles, Kenneth Field moved Fighting Byrne to the fore on approaching the 3rd and held the advantage for the balance of the journey. Drawing away in the stretch, Fighting Byrne won by 6 lengths, in 3.43, with Sonabo holding on for 2nd money, 2 lengths in front of James N. Andrews' Last Look. Tiring badly at the conclusion, Chillick finished 20 lengths behind the latter.

One of hunt racing's most faithful trainers and owners, Morris H. Dixon also scored a popular double. His first victory came off in the Riddle Cup, when his 3-year-old filly Televisé turned back 9 competitors to win her second straight victory. Coming from 5th on approaching the final turn, Ed Deveau saved ground on approaching the uphill pull to the wire and the filly shouldered her 141 pound impost well to draw away and win by 3 lengths. George T. Weymouth's Crockford, the pace-setter for most of the race, finished 2nd, holding off the Lighar Stable's Maia by a neck. Both of the latter named horses were making the first start at a hunt race meeting, Maia being a 2-year-old. Televisé negotiated the 1 mile over turf in 1.41.

The combination of Trainer Dixon and jockey Ed Deveau were again victorious in Notice the pattern? . . . See how it is developing? . . . In the first place the Gray COCHISE dominates the picture. He was a horse that won over $250,000 at distances from 5½ furlongs to 1¾ miles . . . but his important wins were at the classic distances of 1¼ miles and over—Massachusetts H., Arlington H., Sussex H., Saratoga Cup . . . and he also beat Delegate and Three Rings at 7 furlongs, etc.

The pattern then is that COCHISE'S produce will win at two . . . but it is at three and as older horses that the Cochise produce will really start to roll. His first crop started racing in 1955 . . . they won as 2-year-olds at two furlongs in New Orleans and are continuing to win at distances over a mile as three-year-olds in fine stretch runs.

This year, one of the sharpest 2-year-old performers in Chicago was Love Call. Three days after breaking her maiden, she beat a field of allowance horses at 5½ furlongs easily by five lengths over a good track in 1:05 3/5.

The pattern has been set . . . For 2-year-old ability, plus ability to stay, breed to one of the greatest money winning gray horses in the country—COCHISE.

Mr. Gus Eventually To Stand In Virginia

There hasn't been so much excitement in the Old Dominion since Ike carried Virginia in the last election year. This time Mr. Gus inspired the Hosannas! by carrying a fellow named Valenzuela across the finish line two lengths before the mighty Nashua. The race was, of course, the $80,300 Woodward Stakes at Belmont on Sept. 29, and it was an all-Virginia victory.

The dam of Mr. Gus (*Fichu, by Colombo) was imported in 1950, in foal to *Nasrullah. She foaled at North Cliff Farm, which, as everyone knows, is the Rixeyville, Va., home of Mr. and Mrs. Melville Church II. The colt, property of Mr. Gus Ring, was first named Ted, but prior to his racing career the name was changed in honour of his first owner. He (the colt of course) was raised and broken at North Cliff, and is reported to have been a most impressive looking prospect even then. He already had the distinction of being the first *Nasrullah colt foaled in the United States, and, as a suckling, he and Mummy had their picture on the cover of the Blood Horse!

He began his racing career by winning, in his first time out, a six-furlong race at Belmont, in 1.08 2/5, slicing a fifth of a second off the track record for that distance. He was highly favoured in the East View Stakes that year, but in the running he injured his knee, which put him out of action for the rest of his two-year-old season.

As a three-year-old he was sold, along with all of Mr. Ring's Thoroughbred breeding and racing stock, to Mrs. M. E. Lunn of Llangollen. He was raced in the East that year, and in eight starts he won twice (once in a Stakes at Atlantic City) and was third once. His earnings that year were $9,450 - not really a sign of what was to come.

Mrs. Lunn shipped the bay son of *Nasrullah to the West Coast the next year, where he was in the money eight times, to the tune of $109,100 - and where, it must be added, he gave Swaps a few far from restful moments.

He was then brought back East for the Laurel International, in which he placed third. He next ran in the Pimlico Special, second to Brookmead's Sailor, and beating Social Outcast. Mr. Gus, by this time a most cosmopolitan equine, zipped back to the West Coast and his pursuit of Swaps. On his most recent trip East, he stopped off in Chicago long enough to win a Stakes race, and set a new track record over the grass there. It seems that he is really hitting his stride with a vengeance now, for in his next outing he (forgive the repetition) BEAT NASHUA!!

Mrs. Lunn plans to race Mr. Gus another season (barring accidents, which God forbid!), and then retire him to stud at Llangollen.

This seems a good place and time to point out once more that three Virginia bred horses have beaten Nashua and Swaps, and two of them were owned by Mrs. Lunn. Her Porterhouse scored over Swaps, her Mr. Gus - I don't dare repeat it again - and Sailor won from Nashua for Mrs. Isabelle Dodge Sloan and her Brookmead

Blue Sparkler's Predecessors

The victories this season of Amory L. Haskell's 4-year-old Blue Sparkler (Knave High-Blue Tiara) call to mind two other great mares bred in New Jersey. The first is Fashion, foaled near Madison, New Jersey in 1837, and conquerer of the immortal Boston in a four-mile match race in 1841. The second is Regret, foaled at Lincoln, New Jersey in 1912, which won the Kentucky Derby in 1915, the only one of her sex ever to accomplish this feat.

KENTUCKY

Claiborne's Lucky 13th

Whatever might befall on a Friday the 13th, Saturday, Oct. 13 was certainly a lucky day for stallions standing at A. B. Hancock's Claiborne Farm, Paris, as their offspring collected four wins, three shows and a place in stakes. Claiborne's busy afternoon went thus:

Nashua, by *Nasrullah, won the $50,000 added Jockey Club Gold Cup at Belmont Park, with Riley, by Hill Prince, second and Third Brother (Hill Prince's full brother), by *Princequillo, third.

Bold Ruler, by *Nasrullah, won the $50,000 added Futurity, also at Belmont Park, with Amarullah, likewise by *Nasrullah, third.

Leallah, by *Nasrullah, won the $15,000 added Alcibiades Stakes at Keeneland, with Nantua, also by *Nasrullah, third.

Dedicate, by *Princequillo, won the $100,000 added Gold Cup at Hawthorne.

Malvern, Pennsylvania at the Keeneland Fall Sales next week, brings to a close a chain of events which began when the invading Germans seized some of the best Thoroughbred breeding stock in France during the last war and took them home as spoils of war. One of the mares was Hilla (by Son-in-Law) bred by the Aga Khan and winner of the July Stakes. Put to Baron de Rothschild's Bubbles, French classic winner and sire of classic winners, she produced in Germany in 1943 a filly named *Heldensage which was brought to the Remount Depot at Front Royal, Virginia among the horses sent over by General Patton. Abram S. Hewitt, accompanied by the present editor of The Chronicle, was invited to inspect the stock and immediately spotted the filly. When the Remount horses were sold at auction in 1946 your editor bought *Heldensage and registered her for racing purposes with the National Steeplechase and Hunt Association, since The Jockey Club refused to enter her or her foals and the other accompanying Thoroughbreds in the Stud Book. In spite of the fact that the shipment contained some of the best racing blood in France and Germany which would be lost to the Thoroughbred breed, The Jockey Club stood firm, making exceptions only in the case of *Nordlicht (winner of the German Derby) and one or two other older horses.

After winning the six furlong Strawberry Hill Purse on the flat at the Deep Run Hunt race meeting on April 3, 1948, *Heldensage was sold to Ralph Beaver Strassburger who shipped her to France, had her entered in a special section of the French Stud book and put her to stud.

Since her progeny was granted full registration in the French Stud Book, our Jockey Club had to register her stakes winning daughter *Tenare when she was imported this summer in foal to Never Say Die.

MRS. WIDENER'S WIN IN FRANCE

Winner of the valuable Cascade Nursery at Longchamp on the Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe day was Mrs. P. A. B. Widener's American-foaled Beactive (John's Joy-Providence).

In a field of thirteen that contested this six and a half furlong event, she out-paced her opponents throughout the last two furlongs, rewarding her host of American backers who were in France to watch Career Boy and Fisherman in the big race with a remunerative 11-1 on the mutuel.

TOP-PRICE JUVENILE

Last year Captain Cecil Boyd Rochfort used the Duke of Edinburgh Stakes over six furlongs at Ascot to introduce the American-bred In Despatches, Bob Kleberg's horse coming in an easy winner.

In the same race this October, though it had to be run at Kempton Park because the Ascot course was temporarily out of action through soil subsidence, we had a first glimpse of another inmate of Freemason Lodge when "the Captain" saddled the well-named Tempest.

Owned by Mrs. Elizabeth N. Graham, this chestnut son of Court Martial and Squall had been the highest priced yearling at any of the British public auctions in 1955 when he had fetched over $38,000. Though he drifted out to 7-1 in the betting, Tempest ran a good race for it was only in a photo-finish that he went under to Arctic Flower by a neck. The winner, who was scoring for the second time this season, is a son of the recent Spendthrift importation *Arctic Prince.

SLEEPING SICKNESS

Louisville health authorities, who had suspected horses as the source of a sleeping-sickness outbreak, have decided that birds and fowl are a more likely source of the mosquito-borne disease. There have been 89 cases reported, nine of them fatal.

IN JAIL TO TEST LEGALITY

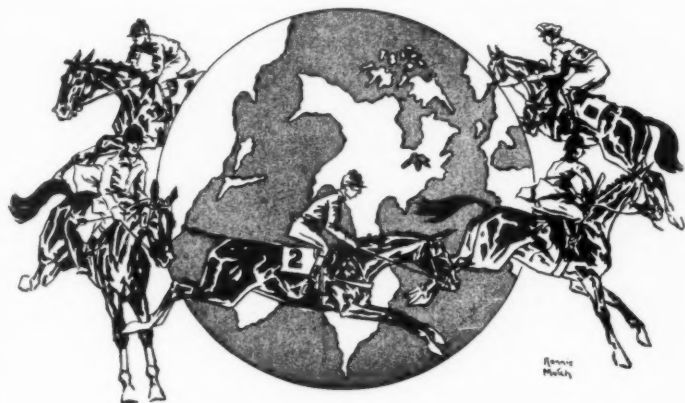

OF RACING

The United Hunts Racing Association kept Thoroughbred racing alive in New York State in 1911-12 when a law passed during the administration of Gov. Charles Evans Hughes "blacked out" the sport by making directors of any track liable if any bets were placed. What isn't generally realized is the fact that Harry A. Buck, secretary of United Hunts, went to jail to help prove his organization's case and spotlight its fight to vindicate racing.

While there was no legal wagering permitted in the state, United Hunts members "bet" their shirts on the success of their two meetings during the two crucial years. For United Hunts guaranteed that no one (except itself) would be permitted to lose anything as a result of its uninterrupted operation of what was then the Belmont Park Terminal.

As a human guinea pig, Mr. Buck spent one long night in the county lock-up at Mineola, asking only that his old and ailing mother be prevented from reading or hearing about his jailing. By attracting wide attention to the United Hunts campaign for racing's future, he and his associates helped to win the case tried later in the courts that removed the betting ban.

*PRINCE CORTAULD COULD BECOME AUSTRALIA'S TOP MONEY WINNER

Forest G. Smith, Jr. of Huntington Park, California has accepted the invitation of Laurel for his New Zealand-bred, Australian-raced Prince Cortauld thereby making the six-year-old horse the first entrant in the 1956 Washington, D. C. International (weight for age at a mile and a half on turf at Laurel on November 12 with $70,000 to the winner). Prince Cortauld will also be the first horse from "down under" to run in this now-famous race.

The six-year-old Australian is fourth on the list of top money winners in his own country. Only one of those ahead of him is still racing. That one is Rising Fast. Of the other two, Hydrogen is retired and Phar Lap, which was also bred in New Zealand and raced in Australia, is, of course, now dead. Should Prince Cortauld do something like win the International, he would pass the three in front of him. (I guess they count monies won abroad. It's the same horse, isn't it?).

The Australian runner is by Sun King (by Hyperion) out of Capricious. In four years of racing, he has won 25 times, has been second 10 times, and has run third seven times out of 52 times. Of his wins, 17 have been in stakes races which I would call a pretty fair showing. He has run successfully in races from 6 to 14 furlongs.

On July 23, which is the Australian equivalent as far as weather is concerned of our January 23, the weights for four big spring (our fall) Australian handicaps were announced. Prince Cortauld was assigned 133, 135, 133 and 133 pounds. In the Washington, D. C. International, he will carry 126 pounds since it is weight for age.

Bringing Prince Cortauld half way around the world to avoid imposts of more than 130 pounds out Nashuas Nashua; the American colt merely does not run to avoid the higher imposts. Seriously though, Mr. Smith purchased the six-year-old especially to run in the International. The arrangements were all made for the extension of the invitation and for its acceptance before the horse left home. The announcement was held pending his safe arrival in this country. His port of entry was Boston and he went directly to Maryland after the Immigration, Customs, Public Health, Department of Agriculture, FBI, and six people who just happened to be standing around examined him thoroughly. He is being trained by Reine Vandernat, a native of The Hague who began riding at 12 in Singapore, where his uncle raced a large string.

WHITNEY STALLION BUYING

C. V. Whitney has experienced more success with stallions, without trying, than has many a breeder burning the midnight oil. He was boarding a plane for the coast when Mrs. Ivor Balding dashed up in a car at the last minute and asked "What about Mahmoud, Mr. Whitney?" "Oh, buy him if you like," he replied nonchalantly. When he went to Abe Hewitt's Virginia place to look at Phalanx as a yearling, in whom a half-interest was offered, he developed a headache of such ferocity he scarcely felt up to examining the colt, but upon leaving casually gave farm manager Balding his approval to complete the transaction. BETTING PUBLIC LIKES

DISTANCE RACES

Figures recently released by the Pimlico track show that at the last autumn meeting the average amount bet on distance races was approximately 19% greater than that bet on the shorter events. Racing fans prefer distance racing partly because luck is less of a factor; partly because practically every starter is in contention at sometime during the race; and partly because they have the pleasure of seeing the horse go by the grandstand twice.

BOSTWICK RETIRING

BONOSNAP WINS

ITALIAN STEEPLECHASE

Carrying top weight of 154 pounds, the 5-year-old French Bonosnap, the property of A. Mourrut, won the $33,800 Grand Premio Merano at Merano, Italy on October 1st over the three mile course. Ridden by Paul Peraldi, he finished five lengths ahead of another French horse Bergerette owned by Madame G. Courtois. The Italian crack Spegasso, owned by the Mantova Stables was third. The Grand Premio is Italy's richest steeplechase and is run in conjunction with the national sweepstake, the winning ticket on which is worth $161,000.

One Day Test At Nashville

Margaret Lindsley Warden

Twenty-six horses and ponies and twenty-four riders competed in the 4th annual One Day Horse Test sponsored by the "Horse Sense" column of The Nashville Tennessean and held in the combined 2600 acre Edwin and Percy Warner Parks, October 6.

This was by far the largest number of competitors for this event which was coupled as always with a Riding Tournament of hack and horsemanship classes mostly for young people.

The One Day Test, intended for adults, has been progressively taken over by juniors until the renewal just past saw only six of the twenty-six entries ridden by those over 17. And these six were handled by four riders. Mrs. Frank Berry, Jr., and C. C. Adams, both of Nashville, each rode two horses.

Adams rode Local Corner, Thoroughbred, and Little Mac, a Thoroughbred-Standardbred cross, to first and second places.

Wendy Morris, 11, of Montgomery, Ala., topped the junior division on Misty, a half-bred. Second, third, and fourth places went to Betsy Rasch, Boyce Magli, and Noel Anderson, all of the Nashville area. Their respective mounts were a pony, supposedly walking-horse bred; a seventh-eighty Arab pony; and a Thoroughbred. Fifth was another really young junior, Winifred Mueller of Germ the Memphis area on the pony, O'Hara.

Good judging by former international team riders (Gen. Raymond W. Curtis and Col. Earl F. Thomson) and the South-eastern Pony Clubs were behind the large turnout for this event. All the juniors were Pony clubbers and they represented Mede Cahaba in Birmingham, Ala., Montgomery, and Oak Grove in West Tennessee as well as Nashville's Middle Tennessee Pony Club.

Alice Newbern of the Oak Grove Hunt Pony Club, Germantown, Tenn., won junior cross-country and was one of only three juniors to get around the 17 jumps without a fault.

The 2-2/10 miles cross-country course was preceded by 3 miles of roads and trails. Obstacle heights throughout were 3 ft. for ponies and not over 3 ft. 6 in. for horses. The dressage was the 1956 AHSA Test A-2.

There were no entry fees and no prize money, just ribbons and silver trophies and fun.

Perry Cabin Pony

The Perry Cabin Pony Show was held on Sept. 8, by Mr. and Mrs. Robert V. Huntman, as was advertised and scheduled. Both of the officials realized that due to a lot of articles which had appeared in the Baltimore and Washington papers concerning encephalitis (sleeping sickness), very few of the ponies which were to have been there would come. Although every effort was made to establish the seriousness of the sickness with the State Veterinarian, as well as all local veterinarians, the exhibitors still felt that the chance of infection was there. Consequently, there were few entries. With the information we had received, we contacted Richard A. Newcity, of the Baltimore News-Post for aid in reaching the exhibitors on the subject. He contacted the State Veterinarian, and sent us a copy of an article which he had written for the papers, stating: "Check with the Livestock and Sanitary Service of the University of Maryland to confirm the fact that there is no known sleeping sickness in the vicinity of St. Michaels. This should insure a maximum turnout for the first "Perry Cabin Show", under the banner of the Association of Maryland Horse Show, Inc."

As to the spectators, there is no excuse available.

This show was established to be a model show in as far as it was possible. The weather was perfect, fortunately. All classes were filled according to the rules of the Association of Maryland Horse Shows, Inc., and as promised to exhibitors by the management.

SHOW STORIES

International Jumping At National Horse Show

With the arrival of the Irish Army Team at Idlewild (Saturday, Oct. 13) following by several days the arrival by steamer of six Irish jumpers also headed toward the 68th National Horse Show, the five international teams competing at Madison Square Garden are already here or enroute to what is expected to prove the toughest competition in many years.

Lt. Col. Dan Corry, himself a veteran of the National, brought his country's three riders from Dublin by air. They are Lieut. Wm. Ringrose, 26; Lieut. Patrick Kiernan, 27, both here last year, and Lieut. Tom Moroney, 29, who is on his first invasion of New York's horse show. Col. Corry is the team's non-riding captain.

Chile's combination army-police-civilian team, in New York one week ahead of the Irish. Chile's team is comprised of Major Ricardo Echeverria, non-riding captain; Army Captain Guillermo Aranda; Carabineros (police) Captain Leopoldo Rojas; and Roberto Knoop, the civilian member.

Brig. Gen. Humberto Mariles, again heading up the Mexican international jumping team, reports that two civilians will this year replace the customary army riders. They are Samuel Soberon and Julio Herrera who, with Mariles, are expected to make it tough for their rivals over the high jumps.

W. R. Ballard, long an active member of the Canadian team, will act as non-riding captain at this year's National. His riders include Tom Gayford and Jim Elder, who has competed here before, and Douglas Cudney, a newcomer to New York.

Bill Steinkraus, captain of the U. S. Equestrian Team, will have as his teammates, Hugh Wiley and Frank Chapot, who as members of the U. S. Olympic team last June, won fifth place in the 1956 Olympic games for this country. The American riders are undergoing intensive training for the National Horse Show at Avon, N. Y.

FARMINGTON HUNT

Mrs. C. McGhee Baxter's brown gelding, Long Road, had things pretty much to himself at Farmington. Ridden by Bobby Motch, he captured the working tricolor and reserve conformation title to total enough points for the grand championship. Long Road turned in two consecutive brilliant rounds to win the H. A. George Memorial in the working corinthian and the Ortman Memorial in the conformation corinthian. Elliewood Keith rode her Persian Moll to reserve working champion while she piloted Shawnee Farm's Journey Proud to the conformation title. She has the mount on Beau Val Farm's green working champion, Nazim.

BRANDYWINE VALLEY

Old man weather really shocked everyone with his Indian Summer weather, especially the foxhunters who appeared here in full fall regalia.

Entries weren't too large as many show exhibitors were laying up for a week before Harrisburg, but the competition present was of high calibre. Ribbons were so well divided that no one horse stood out above the others, though Cristy West's pony, Mousie, claimed the distinction of being the only double winner of the day.

LUDWIG'S CORNER

Several years absence from the show ring doesn't seem to affect Rob MacKinnon's style of riding in the slightest. He and Tarad were really the pair to beat and their day's collection of three blues and a fourth out of four classes gave the pair the undisputed championship. Reserve with blues in the open and ladies and a second in the stake were Betty Baldwin and Jayber. Both the championship horses are Timber Boy colts and are probably two of the biggest, boldest, and beautiful fencing horses in this area.

The tie for the jumper championship was decided over the stake course and Mrs. E. T. Hirst's Any Time repeated his winning stake class round to nose out Derbydown Stables' consistent St. Nick.

It was nice to see Debbie Buchanan's lovely moving Sweet Timothy back in top form at the head of the children's division.

UNIONVILLE

Leslie Wadsworth seems to have found the key to her newly acquired Pin Cushion, the former Brewster horse from Southern Pines, N. C. Displaying greatly improved horsemanship, Les walked away with the two largest children's classes (and the largest in the show, too), the conformation hack class, and several other ribbons.

Thrill of a life time aptly describes Wendy Ledyard's triumph in the big working class, not to mention her continued success in the maiden class. Wendy and her foxhunting Red Ruin set the adults back on their heels with their performances.

Christy West had her hands full in the children's classes with as many as four or five horses per class. Though already established as one of the top riders in this area, her capable (and successful) performances on Backgammon during the day are really worthy of mention.

Even before the severe summer thunderstorm forced cancellation of the last two classes, the Tindles' Far North had already established himself as top horse among the more than one hundred entries on the grounds. Though he's actually in the green division this year, he and Betty Baldwin put in rounds that are bold and consistent enough to do equally as well in the open division.

LUDWIG'S CORNER

Pin Cushion and Maybe really had "their day" here. Though Wick Havens and 13.2 hand Valley Mist topped Pin Cushion in the 3'9" F.E.L. class jumpoff, the pair had to bow to Pin Cushion in the hack off for the junior championship.

Leslie Wadsworth had the big chestnut on top again with blues in the ladies', stake, and hack classes. Reserve went to Tournament's Beau, also from the Milton Kulp stable, and ably ridden throughout the day by rapidly improving Patricia Skinner (who just last week was pinned best child rider at Delaware County).

Bill Douglas' Maybe was really jumping for jock Frank Yaskoe who piloted her to three blues and a fourth out of five classes. Joe Green brought The Face down for Bill Frankhouser to show for the day and Bill promptly bought him. Home on leave from Uncle Sam, Vince Dugan had a leg up on Bill Frankhouser's recently-repurchased Jack Be Quick - army life hasn't dimmed his style, thank goodness! Fencepost

MEDFIELD VFW

Several junior riders braved the stiff competition of adult classes at Medfield, on Sept. 30. Judy Bendick-Smith guided her three-year-old gelding, Arropat, to win the Junior PHA Working Hunter Cup Class and then to place in two senior classes - that was after she won two yellows for horsemanship.

Another young winner was Diana Gardiner on her little grey mare, Rosetta. Together they captured five ribbons, two of which were won in adult competition, plus Champion Children's Hunter. Reserve Children's Hunter was awarded to Ralph Cote's Sailor's Wheel, ridden by Shirley Badger. Mina Albee's big gelding, Scotch Plaid, placed in five adult working hunter classes, after she captured a fourth and fifth in horsemanship classes. Several other young riders, although their mounts were not in the money in the senior classes, did some excellent riding. All in all, those riders "who have not reached their 18th birthday" deserve a great deal of praise.

The "old folks" were not put to shame however. Robert Ridley did some outstanding riding, capturing two championships and two reserves. His own Guilford II was Green Hunter Champion. He rode Ralph Cote's Ferrisburg to Reserve Jumper Championship. Mr. and Mrs. William Potter, Jr.'s Bill McAuley and Mighty Meath, owned by Mrs. Ann B. Rentschler, were pinned Champion and Reserve Champion Working Hunter, respectively, with Ridley up. Glenburnie, Mike Murphey's big jumper, leaped to the Jumper Championship. Dana Hall's nice chestnut, bright Vision, took Reserve Champion Green Hunter. Duffy

HILLTOP

Everyone took a second look when they saw Ted (H.C.) Baldwin hacking the James D. McKinnons' Tarad around before the first working class. After the class was over (he won it), it was obvious to all that Mr. Baldwin was as stiff competition as his two top riding children. In fact, his family and friends can be justly proud of his fine performances with Tarad (four blues out of six classes) all day. Jenepher McLean was 'consistently reserve' to Mr. Baldwin and Tarad all day, except in the ladies which she won, and she finished in that position in the tricolor circle. Her second place in the stake kept the Alfred M. Campbell Trophy in competition for another year at least, since a victory for Jenepher would have given her permanent possession of the trophy (which her Monty D won in '54 and '55).

Christy West did an excellent job on Mrs. Edgar Scott's young Backgammon to garner the junior championship over Sally Liversidge's Quick Trade. This was only Backgammon's second time shown and her performances are evidence of her potentiality.

It certainly was nice to see Peg Winchell back in the saddle once more. She rode her husband Kenny's nice young horse, Cat Bird to the reserve green award behind Fox Valley Farms' consistent First Mate, well-ridden as usual by Mrs. Harry Gill. Fencepost

WESTMORELAND

The 29th annual Westmoreland Hunt Horse Show was held at their new location on the adjoining farms of Mr. E. C. Bothwell and Mr. George R. McNary. The grounds are a great improvement and the ringside parking afforded a complete view of the outside course. This show, the final show of the Western Pennsylvania circuit had well filled classes and competition was keen for the Professional Horsemen's high score awards.

In the pony division, J. C. Dovey's See Bee and Wm. H. Hanley's Peaches N' Cream went in with Peaches 2 1/2 points in the lead. The first class had them pinned See Bee first followed by Peaches, cutting the lead to 1/2 point. Ribbons were pinned the same in the second event giving See Bee a 1 1/2 point lead. In the last class See Bee did not place but as Peaches made a 4th award, See Bee emerged victor by 1/2 a point.

In the Working Hunter Division F. E. Richardson III rode his Top Rail to tie with Stirrup Hill's Mahbub Ali for the Championship of the show. Hacking off Mahbub Ali, with his owner Wm. Stirling Jr. up, got the honor.

Had there been a Miscellaneous Division Championship, Wm. Hanley would surely have taken the tricolor. His Sultan's War won the Western Pennsylvania Hunts Challenge for the second consecutive year with his Tillery's Spree and Red Chester coming 3rd and 4th. In the Fire trophy, donated by Mrs. Ralph Lynch, it was Red Chester first, Tillery's Spree 2nd and Sultan's War 4th.

The Farmers Cup in competition since 1931 has a new name on it, Spanish Easter owned and ridden by Jeanne Redmond. C. B. B.

Meadow Brook Wins Waterbury Cup

Bill Briordy

Riding to a 9-3 margin at half-time, the Meadow Brook quartet annexed the Monty Waterbury national handicap polo championship tournament by topping the Boca Raton (Fla.) four, 11 to 9, in the final round match at the Meadow Brook Club, Jericho, L. I., on Sunday, Sept. 30.

The completion of the Waterbury play - it was resumed after a two-year lapse - just about closed out the high goal season on Long Island.

In the final, Meadow Brook began with a two-goal edge as the four of Pedro Silvero, Vince Rizzo, Alan Corey and Herb Pennell shackled the strong Boca Raton side in the early going.

George Oliver, long one of polo's top mallet-swingers, turned in a splendid showing for Boca Raton. Oliver, who has been playing most of his polo in Florida in the last three years, headed the scorers with eight goals.

Meadow Brook had gained the right to play Boca Raton for the title by turning back the Brandywine side from Kennett Square, Pa., 9 to 8, in a semi-final on Sept. 25. Corey made four of Meadow Brook's goals, while Rizzo got two. One of the victor's goals came via a No. 1 penalty. They also had a two-goal allowance.

Forming Brandywine were Jimmy McHugh, Ray Harrington, Clarence C. (Buddy) Combs - he got five goals - and Billy May-er.

At the Blind Brook Club, Purchase, N. Y., Sept. 30, Bob Ackerman stroked eight goals as Brandywine turned back Blind Brook's Westchester four, 13 to 6. Lev Miller made four goals and Bart Hickok three as Wheatley Hills topped Bethpage, 9 to 5, in a Bethpage (L. I.) Polo League match.

Devereux Milburn hit four goals from his position at back to lead the Meadow Brook Club four to a 7 to 5 success over the Jericho quartet in the weekly high-goal match staged at the Meadow Brook Club, Jericho, L. I., Sunday afternoon, July 22. Alan L. Corey, Jr., who rode at No. 3 for Meadow Brook, put his side ahead with two goals in the first period. At half-time, Meadow Brook showed the way by 3-2. Billy Hudson and Jack Nelson rounded out the Meadow Brook side. Nelson got the victors' other marker. Pedro Silvero and Pete Bostwick each stroked two goals for Jericho, while Herb Pennell hit one goal. Johnny Clements was at back for the Jericho four. A pair of goals by Milburn in the last chukker clinched the decision for Meadow Brook.

A three-goal outbreak in the fourth chukker figured prominently in a 5-4 victory for the Blind Brook Polo Club over the Westchester four at the Blind Brook Club in Purchase, N. Y. In this match, George Haas of Westchester suffered a possible collarbone fracture when his pony tumbled with him in the second period. Haas was thrown clear of the horse, but landed on his shoulder. Harry Elias of Blind Brook also fell - during the third period - when a stirrup broke loose, but he was uninjured. Adie von Gontard, with three goals, and Tommy Glynn, with two, accounted for Blind Brook's markers. Eddie Feick filled in for Haas, while Frank Fox took the place of Elias.

Brookville registered its fifth triumph against three setbacks in the Bethpage (L. I.) Polo League when it turned back West Hills, 7 to 6, at Bethpage State Park. Archie Young paced Brookville with four tallies. Brookville registered in each for the first five periods for a 7-3 lead. Vince Rizzo cut the margin to one with three goals in the final two minutes.

Dave Ellis and Randy Crawford each came through for six goals as Blind Brook checked Brookville, 13 to 8, in a Bethpage Polo League game at Bethpage State Park, Bethpage, L. I., on Sunday afternoon Sept. 2.

Brookville, aided by a two-goal handicap, and Blind Brook were tied at half-time, 7-7 in a match which saw the Westchester poloists restrict their opponents to one goal in the second half.

Ellis and Randy Crawford rode with Bill Crawford and Leverett Miller. Archie Young, riding with Arthur Norden, Arthur Kay and Fred Zeller, paced his side with three goals. Kaye made two markers.

At Jericho, L. I., a Jericho side topped a Meadow Brook four, 8 to 7. The winners ahead by 7-3 at intermission, yielded three goals in the final chukker.

Peter Packard and Pedro Silvero each stroked three goals and Phil Iglehart made two for the Jericho mallet-swingers. Herb Pennell, riding at No. 2 for Meadow Brook, was high man of the match with five goals. His teammates were John Clements, Alan Corey and Bill Stoothoff.

The game, played at the Meadow Brook Club, found the winners getting three goals in each of the second and third periods.

The Blind Brook quartet captured the W. Cameron Forbes Cup by halting the Fairfield (Conn.) Hunt Club poloists, 7 to 6, after two over-time periods in the final round match at the Blind Brook Polo Club, Purchase, N. Y., on Sunday afternoon, Sept. 23. Al Marenholz, veteran mallet-swinging who has done some outstanding work this season, sealed the fate of the Fairfield four when he poked through the winning goal with four seconds remaining in the second extra period.

At the Piping Rock Club, Locust Valley, L. I., the Boca Raton (Fla.) four downed Piping Rock, 8 to 5, in the initial semifinal round match of the famed Monty Waterbury tournament for the national handicap championship. The Boca Raton team began the match with a two-goal edge on handicap against the twenty-five goal Piping Rock combination.

Brandywine Club Bowls Over All Stars 10-7

Bob Gallagher

Rain has caused a cancellation of a few of Brandywine's games this year. However it has not been as severe as last year and more polo has been played to date than this time last season. On Sunday, July 29, Brandywine topped the All Stars 10-7 in a well played match. Paced by Ray Harrington's three goals and Dave Ellis' two tallies Brandywine snagged a 5-3 halftime lead. During the first half the All Stars looked ragged and could not co-ordinate teamwork. However it became obvious at the outset of the fourth chukker that they were making an all out effort to correct some of their first half mistakes. They showed their greatest defensive work of the day by thwarting every Brandywine attempt. At the same time they waxed brilliantly offensively by making four goals. Billy Mayer scored twice, Ted James once and Co. Fair once. Mayer tied the game at 5-5, James broke the tie and Fair added another. Brandywine made a game comeback effort in the fifth period but could dent the goal only once. However, at the same time they held the All Stars scoreless. In the final period the game went in complete reverse for the Stars as they found it impossible to break through Brandywine's defense.

During this period Brandywine never looked better as they proceeded to go on a four goal scoring spree. Dave Ellis and Ray Harrington took credit for the scoring but the assists and team work of their riding mates Jimmy McHugh and Gerry Powell figured greatly in the win. Ellis tied the game at 7-7 by taking advantage of a free penalty shot. Harrington broke the tie with a hard neck shot which emerged as one of the most spectacular shots of the day.

Brandywine Arena Polo

On Wednesday night, September 12, in the Brandywine outdoor arena, the Farmington Polo Club edged the local All Stars 10-8 while Philadelphia trounced Maule Farms 16-4. Despite the appearance of eight-goaler Ray Harrington in the All Star lineup, the Farmington trio proved too strong for the Star Riders. However Harrington played well throughout the game and showed the fans how the Brandywiners recently won the National Open Championship.

Farmington took a 3-1 first chukker lead on the strength of one goal by Marenholz and one each by Butch Butterworth and his dad. Harrington scored the All Stars' single goal. The All Stars made a tremendous comeback in the second chukker, with Everett King making four goals to take the lead. His most spectacular goal came as the result of a lofted shot made from midfield. He dropped the ball in, dead center, like a basketball player tossing in a successful foul shot. Before the half-time whistle blew Al Marenholz countered with a goal tying the score at 5-5.

Farmington took the lead early in the third period and although pushed right down to the final bell, guarded their lead as if life itself depended on it.

In the lead-off game the combination of Ted James, Lyle Phillips and "Duke" Stewart proved too strong for the Maule Farms trio of Ted Chance, Harley Williams and Ed Yetter. At half-time, Philadelphia had piled up an 8-2 lead. The second half went the same way, eight goals for Philadelphia and two for Maule Farms. Ted James had a polo player's dream-night by accounting for nine goals. His riding mates, Phillips and Stewart contributed five and two respectively. Maule Farms four goals were maced by Harley Williams.

Letters To The Editor

Jockey's Record

Dear Sir:

I see in your Chronicle of Friday 12th inst., under The Clubhouse Turn, jockeys record, Jimmy Sylvester. I believe it should be Joe Sylvester. He rode my nephew's horse Inglenook many times, breaking track records. Alf Robertson also rode six winners at one meeting.

I also read with much interest the letter about huntsmen. I have hunted with the Essex Fox Hounds quite a few times and Mr. George Brice was certainly one of the best I have seen. Mr. W. Thompson, one of England's noted huntsmen and over here with Mr. Gilbert Mather, was considered one of the best. You have such a wonderful paper and always correct. After Mr. Roy Jackson left the Old Radnor Hunt Club, I took over and Mr. Jackson gave me a big country to hunt. I hunted and was M.F.H. of a private pack of foxhounds. I also had the horse Inglenook in my stable.

Yours truly,
Karl Whittindale

Harry McGuigon

Dear Sir:

Young Harry McGuigon's courage has been ignored by the press, though his act of selflessness certainly saved a nasty accident and possibly several lives.

He is head boy for the George S. Howell stable, now at Atlantic City, and on the morning of Oct. 2nd was working Mrs. William Snell's Bess Way (Bless Me—Win My Way, by Coldstream), an untried 2-yr.-old, which was bred at Howell's Tourelay Farm, Scobeyville, N. J.

To make a long story short, she broke her leg. McGuigon, without thought of his own danger, sat on her head till help could come.

By doing this horses breezing directly behind were able to go round her, instead of the ghastly piling up of fallen horses and boys which might have been.

Very truly yours,
Norton Campbell

Oct. 5 Editorial

Dear Sir:

Having just returned from an excellent hunt - I picked up my Chronicle and read your editorial. I can hardly contain myself on praising it as it expresses so well the most important aspect, to me, of horses and hunting. Namely, that there seems no better happiness pill in the world. In this age of $10,000 show horses, Cadillacs, etc., few people seem to appreciate the "wonders" of the horse, whether he be some loyal old school horse or an expensive Thoroughbred.

Also, this time of year seems to me to be the most beautiful and exciting time of all - and what better way is there to enjoy it than on a horse out hunting - or, for that matter, any kind of riding.

Please excuse me if I seem over enthusiastic. I guess I am, but your article was so excellent and full of important subject matter - plus the fact that like so many written works - it expressed my own inarticulate feelings on this particular subject.

Thank you!

Sincerely,
Lydia Rothman

the Autumn Stayers' Plate when they reached the winner's circle via the efforts of Mrs. William Coxe Wright's Side Light. Taking over the lead after Thomas Glennon's Gun Maker tired under Billy Frantz, Side Light found little trouble in increasing his lead for the balance of the journey to win by 8 lengths. Closing well under Talbot Albert, 3rd, his amateur rider and owner, Yes got up to best Gun Maker by a head on the wire. The aged Fonda finished 4th and last in the 1 1/2 mile test which was run in 2.43.

The Agricultural Stake, an "about" 6 furlong test over turf for locally owned horses fell to Henrik Scheel's Rock N' Rye, ridden by Joe Aitcheson. The latter finished a like margin in front of Frank Seldomridge's Splash O'Gold, who placed 3rd in the field of 10. The winner was timed over the short course in 1.10.

ing by attending the Jockey Club school for officials.

On the same card with the Gwathmey was the $10,000 added L. E. Stoddard, Jr., for three-year-old hurdlers. While lacking in number, the field more than made this up in quality. Of the six which went postward, five had won their last start, and the other had been third. John M. Schiff's entry of the French-bred Gay Time 2nd and Tarboots seemed unbeatable and was backed down to less than 1 to 2, but at the wire, it was Llangollen Farm's Corn Husker by three quarters of a length under a really fine ride from Jimmy Murphy. Corn Husker was kept close to the pace set by Gay Time 2nd, and, while not fencing too well, closed on the leader at the final fence and held on gamely under a drive to complete the mile and three quarters in 3:13 2/5. The time was only 2 and 1/5 seconds off the course record set by Extra Points in 1953 when as a seven-year-old, he carried 136 lbs. to set the mark. In contrast, Corn Husker carried 141 lbs. On the weight for age scale at this time of year, an aged horse is considered to be 19 lbs. better than a three-year-old. Five lengths back of Gay Time 2nd, Finnochio was third, pulling up with an "ankle". Olympia's Ace and Dromond completed the field after Tarboots lost Even Jackson at the eighth hurdle.

The $15,000 added N. Y. Turf Writers' Cap, feature of the first day's racing, provided an exciting finish with a half a dozen of the 12 horse field heads apart in the run from the last hurdle to the wire. Slipping through on the inside and running a powerful race after being practically left at the post, John Cotter brought home John Schiff's Muguet 2nd, a four-year-old French-bred colt with almost flawless conformation and a great deal of class. He carried 150 lbs., and won at the direct expense of another four-year-old French-bred, Mrs. G. L. Ohrstrom's Arywa, who only landed here by plane a few days previously, and who was ridden by his French rider, Claude Perier. Breakers Ahead, King Gavin, Galatian and Songai finished in the order named after being very much in the hunt all the way. In The Turf Writers racing luck played quite a part, for early in the race Square Dance 2nd unseated his rider, and the horse continued on in the field causing a great deal of interference. Eternal Son dominated the race for a complete turn of the field with Antagonizer forcing the pace to the tenth jump. Antagonizer had enough at this point and dropped out of contention, while Riles on Eternal Son was bothered by the riderless horse. The remainder of the field ranged up with him going to the far turn, including Arywa, which looked like the winner over the second last hurdle, only in turn to be bothered by the riderless Square Dance 2nd.

In addition his jockey, who was making his first effort over the Belmont course, appeared to be at a disadvantage. At this point a veritable cloud of horse were in contention, and there was a certain amount of crowding going into the stretch. King Gavin emerged from the others and ranged up to the final fence with better than a daylight margin. Relatively free of this scramble around the final turn, and almost unnoticed by many, Muguet 2nd had closed fast on the inside to reach the final hurdle in sixth place after being way out of it for most of the trip. With powerful strides he gained on his field to reach the leaders at the beginning of the tote board, and then gained to win by daylight. In the stretch run, Perier on Arywa gave a very good imitation of Albert Foot in a driving finish, capless and with arms and legs going in all directions. The Turf Writers was Muguet 2nd's second trip to the winner's enclosure in four starts in this country, and he impresses as one of the best developments through the field this year. The secondary jumping feature on Tuesday was a mile and three quarter hurdle race which went to Harry Nichols' Cottage Flame, an Irish import with a touch of class, but which unfortunately has not been too sound. However, with "Bing" Murphy doing the riding, Cottage Flame got to the top midway through the race, and then lasted to win by two lengths from the fast closing Scout Mission, ridden by Dooley Adams, a three-year-old was making his third start over hurdles. In this race, he was kept well out of it until the last half mile, in fact Adams did not appear to ask him until after he had jumped the next to the last hurdle. He then closed well enough to suggest he might have been the winner, had he moved sooner. Third and fourth place went to Mycroft and Thrust which were not serious contenders in the closing stages of the race. The time of this race was 3:20 2/5, an interesting comparison with the 3:13 2/5, which was set by Corn Husker the following day.

The final day of the Greater New York meeting at Belmont brought a five horse steeplechase to the post after George Weymouth's Ship Ahoy 2nd was scratched early in the morning because of tendon trouble. Nonetheless, the five starters made a good race with Billing Bear and Coveted vying for the early lead. After several fences, McDonald on Coveted established a daylight lead, while Jimmy Murphy on Billing Bear followed the pace, closely followed by Bombez, Mummer's Knot and Marcheast in the order named. With little change in position, the field raced by the stands the first time. Entering the back stretch John Cotter on Mummer's Knot started to improve his position and almost drew even with the leaders approaching the tenth jump, but at this point, the filly pecked and unseated Cotter. Meanwhile, Billing Bear had closed on Coveted also, and jumped into the lead at the tenth. Kennie Field on Bombez also moved at the same time and it was anybody's race as these three raced for the far turn. Billing Bear gained commend on the turn. Coming into the stretch and up to the final fence, he increased his advantage to three or four lengths, but in the run to the wire Murphy was all out to hold his lead as Bombez made a strong challenge, and Coveted also came on again, the latter getting to within a length and a quarter of Billing Bear at the wire, and just a neck in front of Bombez. It was eight lengths back to Marcheast, who was never in serious contention, and who was running his last race for his owners, Mr. and Mrs. Cortright Wetherill, before being retired to their farm.

It was a good race for Billing Bear who completed the two miles in 3:46 3/5, and was scoring his second win of the season for Mrs. Cordelia S. May.

ACCIDENT CLAIMS LIFE OF BUNNY SHULTZ

The southeastern Pennsylvania horse show area lost one of its up and coming young riders when an unfortunate showing accident claimed the life of Miss Edna (Bunny) Shultz on October 21st. Riding at the recent Fox Valley Horse Show, her horse hit a jump in the green hunter class and turned over, landing on Bunny. She was rushed to the hospital where she died shortly thereafter. The Chronicle and her many friends join in extending their deepest sympathy to her family. Fencepost

BEVERLY HARRISON WINS VHSA HIGH SCORE AWARD

Beverly Harrison, Warrenton, had a happy day at the Farmington Hunt Club Horse Show where she rode well and was the deserving winner of the V. H. S. A. High Score Award for 1956. She competed with four top riders in the finals the last day of the show. After jumping and hacking their own mounts, the finalists changed horses. They were then put on five absolutely strange mounts in every description of bridle..... one horse had only a western curb. It might be said that the five finalists were top sports. Four of them met the night before and studied for the written test of the finals, each learning from the other. The fifth was unable to attend the session as she was in school. Sara Willis was reserve to Beverly, who also qualified for the MacLay. T. D. J.

NEAR MISS

On October 12th a van left the farm of Mrs. Josephine McIntosh at Bedford Village, New York, for the Allendale, New Jersey Show containing four imported dressage horses, two of them belonging to Mrs. McIntosh and two to Jessica Newbury of Croton-on-Hudson. After halting at a stop light, the driver turned the steering wheel which spun loosely in his hands. An investigation showed that a bolt had dropped out so that the van would have been completely out of control had this occurred while it was in motion. Repairs were quickly made and the horses arrived at the show in time for their classes.

MISS CURTIS RECOVERED

Following up our report of Miss Curtis' fall which appeared on Page 35 of our issue of October 12th, we are glad to report that her horse was uninjured and that Miss Curtis has returned home from the hospital completely recovered except for temporary "double vision" resulting from her concussion.

ALLENDALE HAS NEW LOOK IN HORSE SHOWS

It is axiomatic that innovations and radical departures from accepted practice meet with a certain amount of resistance and criticism. The Cerebral Palsy Show at Allendale, with its four rings and outside course, its F. E. L. division and its Dressage division is probably no exception. Indeed, many ring-siders and exhibitors were sharply divided in their opinions as to the value of this or that feature of the program. But the show definitely enjoyed certain advantages..... It was very well received by the spectators, it was never dull, and it produced some top flight competition in all divisions. It could well be that this is a foretaste of the new look in horse shows. WAYZATA COUNTRY CLUB

The Wayzata Country Club opened brand new doors for an inspection of its clubhouse and stables on October 14th, with a repast following a cross country ride of the Long Lake Trails Association. Forty riders came out with almost as many hill toppers. Robert Whiteley and William Lambert can bask on their laurels, as the stables are something to dream about. They were responsible for the stable planning, the tack and conversation room, plus the overall plan which will include an indoor ring, most essential to the welfare of rider and horse in these frosty climes. The Country Club stable manager, Eugene Brennan, is building up the rental department with fun horses to ride and some Thoroughbreds for sale. The Long Lake area is still excellent for cross country riding..... for as YET the ramblers have not closed in. N. S. L.

PENNSYLVANIA NATIONAL

(Editor's Note: We believe our readers will be interested in the first day's events of the Pennsylvania National Horse Show, and are therefore using the story in this space. The summaries will be published in a forthcoming issue.)

The 11th annual Pennsylvania National Horse Show got off to a hefty start Saturday, October 20, in the Farm Show arena at Harrisburg, with 766 horses listed in the program, including the mounts of five international jumping teams.

In the preliminary international jumping event, the strains of the Mexican anthem once more rang out for the victory scored by Julio Herrero, riding Mexicano. Most of the fans at Harrisburg now know the anthem by heart, as Mexico has consistently been the big winner during the past several years. Both Herrero and Roberto Knoop, riding Pillan for the Chilean Equestrian team, turned in no-fault performances, with the Mexican winning in the jump-off, Hugh Wiley, of the U. S. Equestrian team, riding Nautical, also had a clean performance but a three-quarter time fault gave him third place. There was an eight-way tie for fourth place.

Herrero, who said he gave up jumping 13 years ago "because he was too old", proved he could do just as well at 45 as he could when he was thirty-two. With Samuel Soberan he comprises an almost "new" Mexican team, Brig. Gen. Humberto Mariles being the only "old-timer". Ireland and Canada also are competing along with the United States, Chile and Mexico.

In the first night's knockdown and out, many fans expressed sympathy for the 24 riders out of 42 entries who stayed up until midnight only to be able to go over one jump, while 12 others failed on the third. It appeared that the second jump, a vari-colored gate, was too close to the first, and too high. Horses barely had time for a take-off after recovery from the first jump. Finally, Dave Kelley, with Duffy's Leprechaun, made four jumps clean and that's the way it stood until Joe Green came out on Bedford, determined to finish the round. He succeeded until the bar dropped on the ninth jump. It still looked good for Joe until near the end of the class, when Peggy Skipper Galloway took her dependable Rusty over the entire 10-jump course to win the blue. Meanwhile Charles Dennehey had cleared four with Altmeister, and he won the toss from

Chronicle Cover

The cover picture is of Mrs. David M. Yerzy, the former Mary Dickinson Newbold of Philadelphia, aboard "Hats Up". The picture was painted by Wojcieck Kossak in 1930 at Crosswicks Ranch, Gilroy, California. Other figures in the picture are Beau Magic near the fence with El Encino grazing immediately behind. In upper left *Dots with foal by *War Fame. In the foreground is the miniature sheep dog "Whoopee", a great favorite at the time.

Mrs. Yerzy at this period maintained a stable of over 100 hunters, jumpers, and polo ponies at Crosswicks Ranch together with the imported stallion War Fame. Wojcieck Kossak was court painter both to Emperor Franz Joseph of Austria and to Kaiser Wilhelm of Germany. He is chiefly known in this country, however, for his painting of General Pershing with the Armies and for his portraits of Colonel House and many other figures of political importance. To horsemen he is also well known for his picture of Mrs. Thomas Hitchcock with the Aiken Hounds.

When he painted the portrait of Mrs. Yerzy at the Crosswicks Ranch, he was in his seventies but still rode every day with dash and skill, jumping all the fences anybody else jumped.

Kelley for third place. But the dozen who were tied for fifth place with two clean jumps each, elected to jump off, and did so until Morton (Cappy) Smith, cleared the whole round with Redskin. Then the rest resigned.

The children's classes, which occupied Saturday morning and afternoon, brought out a fine field of young equestrians.

The children's working hunter stake, with 52 entries, was captured by Miss Leslie Wadsworth, Penllyn, riding Pincushion, and the reserve spot was taken by Shooter's Hill, ridden by Kathie Mattie, Chesterland, Ohio.

Sally Liversidge, of West Chester, proved her outstanding horsemanship by winning both the ASHA medal class, hunter seat against 45 competitors, and the ASPCA Maclay trophy against 39 entries.

The event for pony Corinthian hunters under 13 hands was captured by Elise Boyce riding Smokey Joe, and the event for ponies 13 hands and over by Hotshot Kid, Terry Rudd.

LONG ISLAND CHAPTER PHA MEMBERS SHOW

The Long Island Chapter, P. H. A. members were fortunate in being able to hold their first recognized junior show on the estate of Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Field, in Huntington. As an added attraction for the young riders, there was a special competition for members of the newly formed Meadow Brook Pony Club. The members wore special armbands and were judged throughout the day on their riding ability, care of their horses, sportsmanship, etc. Special judges and a referee (who was unknown to the children) rendered the decision. A challenge trophy to be won three times was donated by Mrs. Field. Winner was Susan Schier, a member of the Smithtown Hunt whose bay mare, Sea Breeze was reserve hunter champion.

Pat Smithwick, 29 (right), has dethroned Dooley Adams, also 29, as top race winning steeplechase jockey. Dooley, who has held the honor for seven straight years, is currently (22 wins for Smithwick; 15 for Adams) far enough behind Pat so that the latter can't be beaten even though he is out of racing for several weeks with broken vertebra.

SWISSAIR'S SKI-TOUR

Swissair's program of European ski-tours for the Winter season, lasting from 10 to 21 days, offers a "Sam Small" change for equestrians. These "Powder Snow Packages", as they are described, include practically every Alpine resort in Switzerland, Austria, France, Germany and Italy, and you can build up your own custom-made tour if whimsy is in order. Each package includes 3 or 6 nights in a hotel with all meals, plus free use of ski lifts and funiculars and transfers from railroad stations. Swissair's new descriptive folder "Holidays on Skis" is available at their New York office, 10 West 49th Street.

One of the important items of farm expense is Fence Maintenance. Naturally durable woods have become scarce and unobtainable so it pays to use preserved wood—EVERDURE. Our preservative, copper arsenate, is forced into the wood by powerful atomic pressures during 72 hours of hot soaking.
